In the near future, the Soviets plan to publish a White Book concerning the strength of the East German police force and its military equipment, as well as on the special military and political agreements between the USA and the German Federal Republic. This White Book, which is to appear in several languages, has two functions. First, it is meant to be a reply to the British White Book, published some time ago, concerning the strength of the East German police force; second, it is to pillory the USA and the Federal German Republic as warmongers. This White Book is to be based partly on material obtained from Dr. John. Its ultimate function is to demonstrate that a collective security pact is the one and only way for Europe to preserve peace.
